Manager: Albert Hobrecht . Superintendent: Ron Kelly

Hole #7 is a straight par 4, 302 yards with the waste bunker positioned in front of the green. This hole offers a challenge to both the beginning golfer and the more seasoned.

Hole #7 also offers the best view of the Dolomites in Northern Italy.

Alpine Golf Course is located at the base of the Dolomite Alps. We are a 9 hole par 35 course. If you feel like playing 18 holes, you just play the back 9 from different tee boxes. There is only one water hazard, located near Hole #6. We also have a waste bunker located in front of green #7. The other challenge is at hole #3. The 490 yard straight par 4 is located beside a corn field that on any given day will have more balls hit into it than on the fairway.

We have 2 tournaments scheduled per month for the year 2006. Every month we have scheduled Adult and/or Childrens clinics.

Course Rating

66.6

directions:

Kitzingen

Head Pro: Stephen Thomas . Head Greenkeeper: Walter Lumm

The Scottish designed course is an interesting challenge for golfers of all skill levels. It is located just above the town of Kitzingen with scenic views of the surrounding countryside. The generous fairways tempt the golfer to 'grip it and rip it' making it equally fun for the advanced and novice player! New water hazards, newly planted trees and the wind typical for Kitzingen make the course test even the accomplished players' golfing abilities!

Lessons

Head Pro: Stephen Thomas (British PGA)

$25.00 per 30 minutes

Our signature hole is # 14, a par three with the men's tee box distancing 165 meters from the pin! The swirling wind may make this shot a difficult one as the road to the right of the fairway is out of bounds. Depending on the wind, this hole will demand a long iron to get onto the green which is guarded by a water hazard. Missing the green may well mean a penalty stroke or require a crafty recovery shot!

Eifel Mountain Golf Course is a 9-hole executive course. It is a short, yet challenging test of golf with tight fairways and small greens. The layout puts a premium on iron play and is a great place for players of all skill levels to sharpen their abilities. Hole #2 is the signature hole. It is a great risk/reward par 4 that is reachable off the tee but demands control as there is out-of-bounds on the right and any errant shot left leaves the player chipping to a left-side elevated green that slopes away from the player.

Celebrating 50 years of Service

Built in 1956, this 7,000 yard course sits on 300 acres of tree lined, gently rolling hills. The putting greens are in excellent condition and, with the installation of an irrigation system in May '04, the fairways have improved immensely. The course features generously wide fairways but wayward shots will find the hay fields bordering each hole.

The Rheinblick Golf Course is located south of Wiesbaden in the hills of Frauenstein. The clubhouse and surrounding course provide a picturesque view of the Rhein River and the city of Mainz. Rheinblick offers the beginner as well as the accomplished golfer a challenging 18 hole championship course.

The sixth hole is perhaps the single best hole at Rheinblick. A short par 5 at 538 yards, it features a small lake at the end of your tee shot. It then doglegs right, into an undulating hillside to a large green protected by a small sand bunker on the front right and a large bunker about 50 yards out.
